STUDENT SPOTLIGHT

MADDIE JOHNSON

Maddie Johnson is a junior, concentrating in accounting. She is on the Longwood Cheer team and is involved in Sigma Kappa. Maddie is a big people person with a love for both numbers and human interaction. She chose Longwood for its small school atmosphere, reminiscent of home and family ties—her father being a Longwood alum. Maddie's favorite classes this semester are MANG 291 Business Communication and MANG 391 Professional Skills Development, both taught by her favorite professor, Patti Carey. She aspires to have a career where she can work with numbers and people, already exploring internship opportunities with Enterprise. Her advice for students halfway through the semester is to stay positive and resilient, remembering that everything happens for a reason.

CAREER CAFÉ

The Success of the Career Café

The Career Café event hosted by the McGaughy Center was a resounding success, drawing in 22 industry professionals who generously shared their expertise and insights with eager students. With a turnout of over 80 enthusiastic attendees, the event provided an invaluable platform for students to network, gain valuable career advice, and explore various professional pathways. The energetic participation from both students and professionals emphasized the event's significance in promoting meaningful connections and empowering students to navigate their future careers with confidence. Thank you for participating!
